

objective

I'm looking for a position that encompasses both my background in graphic design and writing, preferably one focused on publication design such as creating advertisements, books, brochures, pamphlets, fliers, etc.

education

Aug. 2006 – May 2010

B.A. in Graphic Design
B.A. in English Writing & Rhetoric
St. Edward's University, Austin, TX
GPA: 3.76

honors

- Matthew Harris Memorial Endowed Scholarship Recipient (English Writing & Rhetoric)
- McBee Scholarship Recipient (Graphic Design)
- Alpha Chi National College Honor Scholarship Society
- Honors Program, St. Edward's University
- Phi Theta Kappa, Temple College

technical skills

Programming Applications

HTML, CSS
Adobe Photoshop, Illustrator, and InDesign CS2/CS3;
Quark XPress; MS Office; MSWorks; Fetch, Fugu, and Cyberduck FTP; Dreamweaver

Platforms

Windows 98/2000/XP/Vista, Mac OS 9/10+

work experience

Aug. 2009 – present
St. Edward's University
Marketing Intern

- Created all fliers advertising campus events sponsored by the Career Planning center; designed postcards and e-newsletters for special events throughout the 2009-10 school year

Aug. 2008 – present
St. Edward's University
Assistant

- Interned for Dr. Anna Skinner's "Information Design" class two days a week; gave lectures to a class of 15 students Teacher's on designing ads in real-world situations; conducted tutorial sessions for building web pages using Dreamweaver

Aug. 2008 – May 2009
St. Edward's University
Head Designer

- Head Designer for Arete Student Academic Journal; designed cover inside spreads of the award-winning, student produced academic journal

May 2006 – Oct. 2008
The Belton Journal
Graphic Designer

- Designed small display to corporate-sponsored advertisements
- Responsible for all car ads
- One of only two graphic designers at the paper